L-based upon the report that the Secre-the Treasury would reduce his gold sales 00,000 weekly after July 1. From this figure it osed in the room. Indeed, the whole movement as very speculative in its appearance. A broker clique a reputation for ordinary sagacity, it is diffi-cult to believe that they are buying gold in expectation of a higher premium when the Treasury is on the point of giving the market a golden deluge by disbursing nearly forty millions nine days hence in Cash gold was in better demand, which fact would show that there is as yet a heavy short interest in the market. The rate for carrying ranged from 12 down to 7 per cent, but again the figure is some-what obscured, owing to the variations in the general money market. The following is the report of the Gold Exchange Bank:-

The total bids submitted to the Sub-Treasury for the government gold were for $3,870,000, at prices ranging from 136.03 to 136.75. The whole amount, $1,000,000, was awarded at 136.76.

The movement in gold, started by the rumor that the Secretary of the Treasury would abate the amount of his weekly gold sales, was likewise visi-ble in the stock market, where its effect was due to ble in the stock market, where its effect was due to the impression that the stringency in money would cease. Prices opened with some hesitation and with a weak feeling. The disposition to interpret the bank statement favorably caused a reaction, which was confirmed and strengthened by the report above referred to. The market suddenly became active and strong. New York Central rising to 189, Michigan Southern to 105, Erie to 29%, Reading to 97%, Northwestern common to 79 and Northwestern preferred to 94, New Jersey Central to 107 and Pacific Mail to 884. These prices were made just about half-past twelve o'clock. The market began to weaken at the afternoon board, and when subsequently money had tightened up to 1-32 a 1-16 and the rumor about the gold asless was denied there was a sharp decline in the general list, and the feeling became prevalent that the "bears" had run the market up to sell upon, the street being "sold" again for the ninety-ninth

According to the Indianapolis Journal the Indiana Sinking Fund Commissioners, consisting of the Governor, Auditor, Treasurer and Agent of State, have had a meeting, and upon examination ascertained that the State will be able to redeem about $300,000 of the principal of the Indiana five per cent stocks at the office of the Agent of State in New York on and after the 1st day of July next. The amount necessary to pay the semi-annual interest has also been transmitted to New York. This will leave about $1,000,000 of the principal of the five per cent stocks attll unpaid, supposing the holders should consent to give up the stocks to the amount proposed, of which there is some doubt, as it is still optional with them, and they find the investment one entirely satisfactory to them, so long as they candraw the interest. COMMERCIAL REPORT.

TERBIBLE TRAGEDY IN MISSOURI.

From the Bolivar (Mo.) Press, June 17.]

Hugh Lusk, a young man who has scarcely attained his majority, son of James Lusk, at present a resident of Cooper, but long known as one of the most respectable citizens of Polk county, it seems was a wayward youth. To induce a reform in his deportment his father gave him charge of a farm located near Brighton, and about one mile from the residence of Michael McGuire, an excellent citizen, and who has been so mournfully bereaved. It is said that young Lusk's occupation alternated between a little work on the farm and an occasional spree, and an unsuccessful attempt to pay his addresses to an only daughter of his neighbor, Michael McGuire. Last Monday he was under the influence of liquor, came to McGuire's at nightfail, and enjoyed his hospitalities till morning, making during that stay many serious threats, to which, however, the family paid no attention, regarding them only as the vagaries of a whiskey-fuddled brain.

On Tuesday morning he repaired to the village of neighbors. His wife is held in kind remembrance by all who have come in contact with her. Lusk was laid in the tomb as a cumberer of the earth, and bears, even in death, the mark of Cain upon his

A DISTINGUISHED CARPET-BAGGER SNUBBED BY HIS COLORED FRIENDS.—On Friday last Porter, the carpet-bagger, telegraphed Buck Fuqua, the well known colored conlectioner and hotel keeper of our town, that he was coming up on the train next day to make a speech, and wished him (Buck) to give notice of the fact, and make all necessary arrangements, &c. Buck sent a telegram in reply, teiling him that he was not wanted, and advising him to stay where he was. Next day, however, when the train from Bichmond arrived, Porter stepped off it, and, carpet bag in hand, posted off to Buck's hotel. Buck declined to receive him as a guest. He had gentiemen at his house, and could not think of allowing him to spread his legs under the same mahogany with them. From others of our colored people his reception was equally cool. Indeed, there seemed to be among that class such an indifference about hearing him that he abandoned his purpose of speaking and next day left.—Furmville (Va.) Journal.

OURIOUS MARRIAGR—A LONG ENGAGEMENT.—A curious marriage took place in this town yesierday. The parties were engaged in Ireland nearly forty years ago—have continued so all along. The lady came to America and made this place her home. The genileman entered the British army and was a soldier twenty-one years; has been in every part of the globe; has spent sone years in Montana Territory, and last month left there and arrived here on Fricay last, coming a distance of more than two thousand miles, claimed his affianced and was actually married. It is a remarkable instance of early, constant and successful love.—Greenette, & C., (June 16), correspondence Charleston Courier.
